

A Day Without the WSP Fire Protection Bureau

The Washington State Patrol (WSP) makes a difference every single day for the citizens of Washington State. If WSP employees were not working today to provide public safety services to everyone where they live, work, travel and play:

- 132,150 people would be housed in boarding/nursing homes not inspected for fire safety.
- 52,500 children would be in child care centers not inspected for fire safety.
- 5,080 people would be living in a group home which was not inspected.
- 10 people would not be trained for hazardous materials through the Fire Protection Bureau.
 - 1 Law Enforcement officer
 - 5 fire fighters
 - 1 Medical worker
 - 3 other
- 8 firefighters would not receive training at the fire training academy.
- 1 criminal case would not be opened for investigation.
- 1 fatal collision would not be investigated, and the family of the deceased would not have closure or understand why their loved one died on our roadways.

These are just a few of the many services the WSP provide every day to the public. To view more extensive lists please click on the links below:
